

Ready, Set, GROW!

A Procurement Connection Workshop

The Governor's Office of Minority Affairs is helping women, minority, and small business owners compete for State contracting opportunities with a live workshop series entitled Ready, Set, GROW! Join us and our coordinating partner Maryland Eastern Region SBDC for the next workshop on Thursday, April 7, 2016 at 10 am at the Wicomico Room of Guerrieri Center at Salisbury University in Salisbury, Maryland.

"Public procurement is very competitive," stated Jimmy Rhee, Special Secretary of the Governor's Office of Minority Affairs. "We want to help small and micro businesses compete with confidence as they go after prime and subcontracting opportunities in the government sector."

This two-hour workshop is designed for small businesses that are ready to compete and perform on government contracts.

A unique element of the Ready, Set, GROW! workshop is the inclusion of procurement officers discussing specific opportunities available at their agencies. Buyers from the Maryland State Highway Administration, the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, and Salisbury University, among other invited panelist, will be on-hand to discuss doing business with their agency and provide information about current and upcoming procurement opportunities.

There is no cost to attend the Ready, Set, GROW! workshop on April 7th at the Wicomico Room of Guerrieri Center at Salisbury University, Salisbury, Maryland.

Space is limited and advance registration is required.
